This map and list displays Materials Recovery Facilities (MRFs) in Massachusetts. A MRF is a recycling facility that receives mixed recyclables (i.e., containers and paper products) and mechanically sorts and separates the mixed stream into marketable commodities. This map and list does not include facilities that may accept mixed recyclables and transfer them to other facilities for processing, and does not represent the full capacity in the Commonwealth to manage recyclable materials. If you have questions about this list, or believe your facility should be listed, please contact Joshua Cook at Joshua.cook@state.ma.us.
